

Product Discontinuance Notification

Date: 10/12/2020

Overview

This notification serves the purpose of communication to Sales, Marketing, Customers and internally that OmniVision Technologies, Inc. (OVT) is discontinuing product(s) identified below immediately due to supplier's equipment issues. The supplier's vendor has stopped making and supporting equipment(s) that the supplier use in the manufacturing of the product listed below. In addition, the supplier does not have spare equipment(s) or parts in-case of equipment failure, which could result in an abrupt line down at unpredicted times; therefore, OVT has decided to notify to our customer(s) and prepare for an immediate discontinuance of parts listed below.

In the past, OVT supported our customer(s) with the last time order (LTO) option for smooth transition. However, due to the aforementioned circumstances, OVT will not be able to offer LTO to our valued customer(s). OVT will try to fulfill existing order(s) with available material on-hand. OVT will not be able to guarantee quantity nor future shipment(s) and will no longer accept new orders for any product listed here. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience that will arise from this notification.
